

Eakring Echo

Many Thanks to the Sponsor of this month's edition :- Eakring Farming Ltd

Happy Birthday on the 3rd October to Ann Lacey, the Office Manager, who is officially a 66 year old pensioner but is still the wonderful "Boss in the office".

With love and best wishes from all at EFL XXX

EAKRING WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

At the September Meeting unfortunately the Speaker on Military Dogs had to cancel at short notice due to family matters. A big thank you to Lyn Stevenson, a Fitness Instructor, who at short notice came and organised an Exercise Class for everyone. It was good fun and everyone enjoyed it. The raffle was drawn; tea and biscuits were served ending a very pleasant evening.

The next Meeting is on Tuesday 17th October 7.15pm. in the Cator Hall.

Speaker - Tim Hodge
Subject - The Samaritans
Refreshments - Pauline Humphreys, Elaine Clewes.
Thanks - Heather Brown.

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING

A huge thank you to everyone who supported Eakring Village Macmillan Coffee Morning in any way. We raised a fantastic £543.00 on the day but are able to give Macmillan £1,000.00 due to some extremely generous donations.

RUMMIKUB & KURLING

The next Meetings – Thursday 5th & 19th October 2.00 – 4.00pm. in the Cator Hall.

Please come and have a go.

EAKRING PARISH COUNCIL

Eakring Parish Council held a meeting in the Cator Hall on Wednesday 13th September. Repairs to the road - Eakring to the A617 Kirklington (outside The National Grid site) will be carried out shortly.

There was no news regarding the plans for an incinerator at Bilsthorpe. As soon as something happens the council will let the village know. The Council approved the purchase of the equipment required for the Speedwatch scheme, as soon as we have it the volunteers will be contacted.

There's a call out from Nottinghamshire County Council for people to volunteer to be "Snow Wardens". Anyone interested should contact the Parish Council Clerk email:
eakringparishcouncil@gmail.com

The next meeting is Wednesday 11th October, 7.30pm in the Cator Hall.

THANK YOU

From Pat Peach of Jays, Kirklington Road after her recent stay in hospital following a hip operation. "I would like to thank all my friends for all the help they have given me. Everyone has been so kind and helped my recovery so much."
