EAKRING WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The February meeting is traditionally organised by the members, it is always entertaining and this year was no exception. The business was quickly dealt with and everyone enjoyed the rest of the evening followed by a lovely buffet with tea and wine. The raffle was drawn and the President thanked the members for a lovely evening.

The next Meeting is on 18th March 7.15p.m in the Cator Hall.
Please bring your subscription for the year. Everyone welcome to join us.

3,000 Eakring Trees Planted!

A new woodland has been planted by volunteers helping Chris Parsons and Eakring Farming staff.

Our call for help had a magnificent response from residents of Eakring and the surrounding area.

More than 50 people turned up to plant some trees. It's really good to see such a lot of care for our natural surroundings.

We planted 3,000 trees from a mix of native species, each protected by a tube and stake.

Stand back and watch them grow!

Thanks very much to all our tree planters. Eakring Farming will be donating £100 per volunteer per days work to the charities suggested by volunteers.

With so many people volunteering, perhaps we could get together for more local nature / green / sustainability projects. If you'd be interested please let me know. Rob Pedley rob@robpedley.co.uk

EAKRING PARISH COUNCIL

February meeting of the Parish Council saw us get up to full strength for a time but since the meeting a Councillor has withdrawn so we will be seeking the final (7th) Councillor to join the team provided that an election isn't called.

We would like to welcome anyone willing to work together to the betterment of the village but please come to a meeting or two before applying so that you can see what you are letting yourself in for!

The really good news is that we now have a booking Clerk (Sam Lewis-Evans.... tel:- 07711876319 thank you for volunteering) who will be supported by Marion (a new Councillor who has experience of running the bookings in the past). Hopefully a mixture of experience and enthusiasm will be just the thing we need to get the hall fully functioning and in use by and for the Community.

We are actively seeking advice and guidance from RCAN (Rural Community Action Notts) and Notts ALC (Notts Association of Local Councils) as to the best way to structure the basis of the Committee needed to springboard the activities back into action and make up for the momentum we lost a couple of months ago. We look forward to positive news to report at our March meeting on Wednesday 12th March, 7.30pm at Cator Hall.
