INSPIRING WOMEN

At the August meeting the President welcomed Colin Deeley from the National Trust, the speaker for the evening. The business was quickly dealt with and Colin then spoke about the Southwell Workhouse and Infirmary. He gave us an insight into the formation of the workhouse and into the conditions men, women and children endured. After questions and answers refreshments were served, finishing with a raffle.

The next meeting is on,
Tuesday 16th September at 19.15 in Cator Hall

The speaker – Hannah Sylvester

The topic – Medicinal Plants:

The Medicine Chest in your Back Garden

Thanks – Jenny Bailey

Up-coming Events

Cross-Country Charity Event. New Kapporet Trust

This cross country event is ALL for charity. You can pic'n'mix the route you do. There will be 3 routes of varying distances to make up an approx. 17-mile event. You can run/walk or jog the route which will be waymarked.

Each route will bring you back to our home in Eakring where you can pic'n'mix some delicious homemade cakes before you go off again on the next route or finish. You can do any route you like in any combination, just come along and have some fun on this family run event.

The money goes to the New Kapporet Trust, it is a Christian helpline which we as a family support. It is an event we have run for four years to raise money for this charity in a fun way.

Sunday, 5 October '25 9am – 4pm

Entry is £30 each96 places available.
