It was a joy to be licensed recently as Priest-of-Charge of St Andrew's, Eakring (and St Margaret's, Bilsthorpe). I'm very much looking forward to this new season of life and getting to know you. If you want to get in touch or meet for a coffee, then drop me an email: david@st-andrews-eakring.org.uk
And, of course, I'd be delighted to welcome you to church on a Sunday as well!
With every blessing, David.

EAKRING VILLAGE MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING

A VERY BIG THANK YOU

We raised £520.00 for MacMillan.
I would like to thank everyone who gave donations and helped with the Tombola, Granny's Attic, cake, produce and the refreshments. Also, everyone who took the time to come along to support this charity, which made the Eakring Village MacMillan Coffee Morning a great success. With love, Caroline

Congratulations

Congratulations go to Sally Richards who was recently licensed as a Licensed Lay Minister (LLMs) to the Revd Dr David Emerton in the Benefice's of Eakring and of Bilsthorpe. During her training, Sally has had the opportunity to lead services and has discovered a passion for preaching and a gift of engaging with people, which she is hoping will help bring more people to Jesus through her ministry.

EAKRING WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

At the September meeting, the President welcomed Bridget Lowe, who gave us an insight into Nordic Walking.
After the business of the meeting had been dealt with, Bridget told us about the Finnish method of walking, called Nordic Walking, and explained how it can benefit our health and wellbeing. She also brought along the equipment so that members could try the technique for themselves.
Following an interesting question-and-answer session, the evening concluded with tea, coffee and cake, along with the usual raffle.

Next Meeting – Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday 20th October at 7.15pm in Cator Hall.
Speaker: Andy Smart Topic: "Their Names Will Live On"
This will be an open meeting, with Eakring WI opening its doors to anyone from Eakring who would like to come along and listen to Andy's talk. Andy is the author of Their Names Will Live On, a book which brings together interviews, personal photographs and articles from the archives of the Nottingham Post, telling the stories of local war heroes and veterans from major conflicts over the past century.

Thanks: Pat Endean-Rowe
Refreshments: Brenda Millward and Gill Pennicott
